Harding Junior: I enjoy the process and the journey on screen

The actor shares his thoughts on the challenges of transitioning to the screen and a career in Hollywood.

For Harding Junior, the journey to the screen was a long and winding road. He grew up in Haiti, where he was exposed to the arts from a young age. He moved to the United States in his late teens and spent several years in New York City, where he honed his acting skills and worked as a model. He eventually landed a role in the film "The Best Man" and has since built a successful career in Hollywood.

Harding Junior is a talented actor with a diverse background in dancing and modeling. Born in Haiti, he later moved to Mexico at the age of five. He has a passion for the arts and has worked as a model and dancer before transitioning to acting. He has appeared in several films, including "The Best Man" and "The Hitman's Wife's Bodyguard".
